LOUDOUN COUNTY VIRGINIA 250th AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Next year, we will commemorate the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution in Virginia. Throughout the Commonwealth there will be educational events, exhibits, artifacts on display and special events to recognize this time period in history. Starting in March, Visit Loudoun will host a monthly series to prepare for celebrating the event in Loudoun. We hope you will join us.

MEET OUR SPEAKERS:

TRACY GILLESPIE TRAVIS SHAW
 RICH GILLESPIE COLONEL MONROE

MARCH 22, 1-3PM // TRACY GILLESPIE & TRAVIS SHAW
The VA 250th Commemoration: An Introduction
 We will learn about the Loudoun Commemoration to the VA 250th, join the welcome to learn about the resources available and how to engage with activities in Loudoun.

APRIL 26, 1-2PM // RICH GILLESPIE
Loudoun on the Eve of the American Revolution: A Patchwork Quilt of Diversity
 In this webinar, we will look at the rapidly changing diverse society through Loudoun stories and photographs of our historical landscape. It is that society that will enter the American Revolution in the spring of 1776. It is a society that knows that in its infancy, it had much in common with today.

MAY 24, 1-3PM // RICH GILLESPIE
The American Revolution Comes to Loudoun: What Happened Here?
 The question facing the anniversary of the American Revolution is twofold. How did people 250 years ago think of the Revolution here? And given that we're in anti-historic Virginia, what happened here? Our third webinar explores these questions to help get you familiarized as the anniversary approaches.

JUNE 4, 2-3PM // COLONEL MONROE
A Living History
 As America's living history interpreter and re-enactor, share his experience as Colonel and President James Monroe. This event will be live at the Aldo Mill in Aldie, VA.
