Our Summer Series will continue our look at the violence and discord of the 17th Century. Part 1 of our Summer Series will focus on the religious tensions at Jamestown. Contrary to earlier belief, Jamestown was religiously very diverse and the differences were the cause of a great deal of tension and even violence. Perhaps a plot to murder? St. Luke's Education Coordinator John Ericson will examine the religious context at Jamestown and the implications of being "Born from Conflict."

Drinks and snacks are provided, or bring your own lunch if you like!
